Agenda item:	Review of Reports	Presenter:	Ann Diorio/Theresa Diorio/Kleay Steever/Michael Wright (guest)
---------------------	--------------------------	-------------------	---

Discussion:

- Update of Summer Camp as reported by Kleay Steever:
 - Summer camp is fully-staffed- more staff recently hired, including 14 junior counselors.
- Pool Update as reported by Theresa Diorio:
 - The pool will be open for Field Day (specifically for HES fifth graders) on Friday, June 14. The pool is scheduled for its soft opening week the following week.
- Any other business to come before the Committee:
 - Welcome to Jessica Green, newest member of HCRC.
 - Michael Wright presented to the committee regarding volleyball; see attached report. This report includes information regarding expenses for volleyball equipment ($249.99 for a professional volleyball net set and $11.87 for an official-sized volleyball), as well as additional information regarding pricing. Discussion followed. Katie asked for clarification vs. indoor or outdoor. Michael's response: outdoor volleyball. Committee discussion led to likely formation of a subcommittee, with Michael Wright to be on that subcommittee.

Agenda item:	Heart & Sole/GOTR	Presenter:	Karyn Hammond
---------------------	------------------------------	-------------------	----------------------

Discussion: Regional 5K is this Saturday. So far, the entire team is attending. Approximately 8-9 have running buddies. All seven coaches will be present at the 5K. The team celebration will take place immediately after the 5K.

Follow-up with Maryanne O'Malley re: HASP financial support in past seasons. Maryanne reported/verified that since Hinsdale GOTR became part of NH council rather than VT (post-Covid), HASP has not been asked to contribute toward participant registration. The remaining balance of participant fees not covered at the time of registration have been covered by NH GOTR Council.

---------------------	------------	-------------------	-------------------

Discussion: $250,000 grant came through for the CIP. Discussion followed.

Agenda item:	Policies and Procedures of Sports Programming	Presenter:	Katie Leonard
---------------------	--	-------------------	----------------------

Discussion:

Katie found three different youth sports procedure manuals, and shared printouts with the committee. She reported common themes among them. Katie has been researching resources for parents, players, etc., and found some quality checklists, program rating scales. Katie offered to draft something to bring to the committee, with the goal to present a draft around the time of the next HCRC meeting. The committee reported agreement.
